Catholic Education Week May 1 – 6

The theme of Catholic Week - Opening Doors of Mercy: “Blessed are the merciful, for they will receive mercy.” – Matthew 5:7

Monday: Mercy that Welcomes

Tuesday: Mercy that Loves

Wednesday: Mercy that Forgives

Thursday: Mercy that Lives the Gospel

Friday: Mercy that Rejoices

Prayer: God of Love and compassion, help us to open the door of mercy in our school communities, in our families and in the world. Let mercy guide our living and bring us closer to the heart of the gospel. May we live as Jesus with mercy that welcomes, loves, forgives and calls us to live the gospel joyfully.

POPE PIUS XI ON CHRISTIAN EDUCATION

The proper and immediate end of Christian education is to cooperate with divine grace in forming the true and perfect Christian, that is, to form Christ Himself in those regenerated by Baptism... For the true Christian must live a supernatural life in Christ: "Christ who is your life,"[64] and display it in all his actions: "That the life also of Jesus may be made manifest in our mortal flesh."[65]

The Pope's Pastoral Works (www.archtoronto.org)

A disastrous flood or earthquake strikes a nation at the other end of the world. Immediately many countries rush in aid and trained people. Prominent among them is the financial help offered by the Holy Father. In the name of Catholics everywhere, he displays Christ's love and compassion for those who suffer. The money for this comes from the Pope's Pastoral Works collection which will take place in our parish next weekend, May 7/8.

Before we gardeners, farmers, window-box putterers go to work with cultivators, powders, sprays, etc., our crops might grow a lot better if we asked God's help first:

V. Our help is in the name of the Lord.
R. Who made heaven and earth. (www.catholicculture.org)

Fr. Michael will be blessing seeds on the weekend of May 7/8. Bring your seeds and put them on the table that will be set up for that purpose.

12 Hours of Prayer for Palliative Care

The CWL of Canada calls all people of faith to join nationwide in 12 Hours of Prayer for Palliative Care on May 4. This is designed to take place during the National Hospice Palliative Care Week as a profound witness to the sanctity of human life.

There is a pressing need for all Canadians to have greater accessibility to palliative care. This end-of-life care is true compassion. It allows individuals who are facing death not to be burdened by pain and suffering but to receive the necessary support that respects their human dignity both physically and spiritually rather than choosing physician-assisted death as a desperate last resort.

Please sign the 12 Hours of Prayer Petition.

#endthekilling

The Catholic Church, from its first days, condemned the aborting of unborn children as gravely sinful. Not only Scripture's teaching about God's protection of life in the womb (consider the prophets and the psalms and the Gospel stories about John the Baptist and Jesus himself in Mary's womb) but also the first century catechism (the Didache or Teaching of the Twelve Apostles) said: "You shall not slay the child by abortions. You shall not kill what is generated." The teaching of the Church was clear in a Roman Empire that permitted abortion. This same teaching has been constantly reiterated in every place and time up to Vatican II, which condemned abortion as a "heinous crime." This is true today and will be so tomorrow. (Cardinal George, former Archbishop of Chicago.)

Canada: Caring Not Killing

Letter writing campaign — letter-writing is the most effective way to get the attention of your political leaders. To write an effective letter - keep your letter short and use only one or two talking points.

Go to the Euthanasia Prevention Coalition website.

The Slippery Slope - proven by experience of The Netherlands

If euthanasia advocates get their wish, they will drag Canada, inch by inch, into the same nightmare world already playing itself out in The Netherlands and Switzerland.

In this death culture, the category of those who are "killable" is ever-expanding and will not stop until anybody who wants to kill themselves, can kill themselves, for any reason. At the time they took their first steps to legalize killing, the Dutch and the Swiss medical community proclaimed "strict guidelines". In time, all those guidelines, protocols and "safe guards" proved to be worthless. "Termination without request or consent", whereby a doctor kills a patient without their explicit consent, is an out of control problem.

No safeguard exists which can defend against the power of human logic which says that if killing is a solution to one problem, it can be a solution to many. campaignlifecoalition

Ottawa rally: Parliament Hill on Wed., June 1, from 12 noon to 1:30pm.

Make plans to join EPC for a peaceful rally opposing euthanasia and assisted suicide on Parliament Hill on Wednesday June 1 (12 noon to 1:30 pm).

The theme of the rally is: Caring Not Killing: Euthanasia and Assisted Suicide are not the answer.

Bill C-14 legalizes killing by euthanasia / assisted suicide (assisted dying) by creating an illusion of safeguards while employing double language and poorly defined terminology that simultaneously undermines its own supposed safeguards. Bill C-14 is the perfect cover for acts of murder by providing legal immunity to any person by stating:

"any person who does anything for the purpose of aiding a medical practitioner or nurse practitioner to provide a person with medical assistance in dying."

Development & Peace Corner Nepal – One Year After The Earthquake

Support for Housing Reconstruction

Following the earthquakes, 882,000 houses were damaged or destroyed. Many families lost their homes, while others were afraid of returning to their dwellings, as the structures may have been weakened. The family house provides privacy and dignity, as well as protection from the elements and against disease, and villagers who were asked about their greatest need said that it was to rebuild their house. The approach is to enable communities to rebuild their houses themselves through:

- ⇒ The distribution of construction materials;
- ⇒ Training and technical support for building earthquake-resistant

- structures;
- ⇒ Advocacy for promised government compensation; and
- ⇒ Help for the recovery of official legal documents, such as land titles.

Euthanasia

Protect the weak and vulnerable. Sign at: <http://www.citizengo.org/en/lf/34147-save-weak-and-vulnerable-stop-assisted-suicide> and write your letters opposing this dreadful proposed law.

Right to die... or Duty to die?

It is evident that legalizing euthanasia will place undue pressure upon elderly, ill and disabled persons to seek (or accept) euthanasia out of fear that they are "a burden" to family members. Without love and support, loneliness will soon express itself in the mind of many vulnerable people as a "duty" to stop being a burden to relatives who are "too busy to spend all their time on me".

Add the fact that our health care system is near collapse, and one can quickly see how unfair legalizing euthanasia would be for lonely, vulnerable people who feel "guilty" for being "such a cost burden" on our health care system. Make no mistake. If we legalize euthanasia or assisted suicide, we will at the same time, institutionalize a duty to die for the weakest members of society. That is immoral and must be opposed.

Spiritual implications

Beyond all the arguments we hear - "compassion", death with dignity, unbearable pain, or slippery slopes, one fact is perhaps the most important. That is, if God exists, if His Word is true, euthanasia or assisted suicide is a grave sin. The 5th Commandment - "Thou shall not kill" allows no exception for "choice". As such it is a serious matter for all who participate in it. If we love ourselves and our brother, then we must avoid any sin that could possibly deprive us (or others) of eternal happiness.

Mary, Mother of Mercy

As St. Bernard once said "the Eternal Father, wishing to show all the mercy possible, besides giving us Jesus Christ, our principal advocate with Him, was pleased to give us Mary, as our advocate with Jesus." And in the words of St. Augustine, because Mary gave "flesh to the divine Word," as the Mother of God, for our redemption, "she is more powerful than all others to help us gain eternal life."

Beautiful words to live by from

St. Pope John XXIII:

"Consult not your fears but your hopes and your dreams. Think not about your frustrations, but about your unfulfilled potential. Concern yourself not with what you tried and failed in, but with what it is still possible for you to do."

"Only for Today..." THE DAILY DECALOGUE OF POPE JOHN XXIII

- 1) Only for today, I will seek to live the livelong day positively without wishing to solve the problems of my life all at once.
- 2) Only for today, I will take the greatest care of my appearance: I will dress modestly; I will not raise my voice; I will be courteous in my behaviour; I will not criticize anyone; I will not claim to improve or to discipline anyone except myself.
- 3) Only for today, I will be happy in the certainty that I was created to be happy, not only in the other world but also in this one.
- 4) Only for today, I will adapt to circumstances, without requiring all circumstances to be adapted to my own wishes.
- 5) Only for today, I will devote 10 minutes of my time to some good reading, remembering that just as food is necessary to the life of the body, so good reading is necessary to the life of the soul.
- 6) Only for today, I will do one good deed and not tell anyone about it.
- 7) Only for today, I will do at least one thing I do not like doing; and if my feelings are hurt, I will make sure that no one notices.
- 8) Only for today, I will make a plan for myself: I may not follow it to the letter, but I will make it. And I will be on guard against two evils: hastiness and indecision.
- 9) Only for today, I will firmly believe, despite appearances, that the good Providence of God cares for me as no one else who exists in this world.
- 10) Only for today, I will have no fears.

In particular, I will not be afraid to enjoy what is beautiful and to believe in goodness.

Indeed, for 12 hours I can certainly do what might cause me consternation were I to believe I had to do it all my life.
