The Holy Rosary*The Sorrowful Mysteries

(typically prayed on Tuesdays and Fridays)

The Agony of our Lord in the Garden ...*Sorrow for our sins

In the Garden of Gethsemane, Jesus took on the heaviest weight that anyone has ever known. Upon his shoulders, He carried the weight of every sin ever committed by every person who was and ever would be born. It was an immense burden that could be lifted only by Jesus accepting the Father's plan and dying on the cross. By this extreme act of love, Jesus earned salvation and forgiveness for each of us. In this mystery, let us thank Jesus for loving us so much, and ask for the grace to be truly sorry for our sins, so that we can seek the forgiveness that Jesus freely offers.

The Scourging at the Pillar ...*Purity and mortification

Sometimes it doesn't seem fair when we suffer. Sometimes it seems that pain - whether physical or emotional - is pointless. But Jesus' suffering brought salvation to the world. Our suffering can have meaning, too. If we offer up our difficulties to God, He can take our pains and transform them into blessings for others. Who do you know who needs help? What about the souls in purgatory? What about people you know who are estranged from God? In this mystery, let's offer up all our pains and difficulties to God, so that He can use these small sacrifices for the benefit of others - especially families that are struggling.

The Crowning with Thorns ...Moral courage

Even though Jesus had already been beaten and experienced the weight of our sins, when the soldiers mocked Him and put a painful crown of thorns on his head, He continued to have courage in the face of his suffering. When people make fun of us for what we believe, do we stand up for what is right? Do we give into pressure from others to sin and make wrong choices? In this mystery, let's pray for people who struggle to live out their faith courageously, and for ourselves, that we will boldly proclaim the loving forgiveness of Jesus Christ.

The Carrying of the Cross ... Patience

Sometimes life presents us with difficult situations.

We might struggle with jobs, school, or just the people around us. Sometimes we have challenges that seem unbearable. Jesus gives us an example of patiently bearing these difficulties — even when it hurts. And sometimes when it hurts, we lose our patience with ourselves, with people in our family, and even with God. During this mystery, when we think of Jesus carrying his cross, let's ask God not only to help us endure trials, but to have the patience to endure them with love.

The Crucifixion and Death of our Lord ...*Self denial

There is nothing that we will experience in life — love and happiness, sadness and anger, temptation and betrayal — that Jesus didn't also experience. Through all these things, He gives us the perfect example of how to bear all of these things with great love. He loved us so much that He accepted death on a cross for the sake of all the sins of the world — past, present, and future. In his death, He models us for how we can die to ourselves. To die to ourselves means to be willing to die to what we want — to be willing to go without — so that we can live for God and others instead. Thank you, Jesus, for dying on the cross

"The Mass is the most favourable occasion to speak with the eternal Father, because then we offer Him His only Son as a victim for our salvation. Before celebrating, reflect on the sufferings of your Redeemer, commune peaceably with Him, even in the midst of dryness; carry to the altar the needs of the entire world."
St. Paul of the Cross

"A saint is not someone who never sins, but one who sins less and less frequently and gets up more and more quickly."

— Bernard of Clairvaux

The greatest deception, and the deepest source of unhappiness, is the illusion of finding life by excluding God, of finding freedom by excluding moral truths and personal responsibility. (St. Pope John Paul II)

St. Jean-Marie Vianney, the Cure of Ars once asked one of his parishioners who spent hours in adoration of the Blessed Sacrament, "My good father, what do you say to our Lord in those long visits you pay Him every day?" "I say nothing to Him," was the man's moving reply; "I look at Him and He looks at me."

"All the good works in the world are not equal to the Holy Sacrifice of the Mass because they are the works of men; but the Mass is the work of God. Martyrdom is nothing in comparison for it is but the sacrifice of man to God; but the Mass is the sacrifice of God for man."

St. John Vianney, Cure d'Ars

Clearly, what God wants above all is our will which we received as a free gift from God in creation and possess as though our own. When a man trains himself to acts of virtue, it is with the help of grace from God from whom all good things come that he does this. The will is what man has as his unique possession.

St. Joseph of Cupertino

St. Anthony Mary Claret:

The Christian who desires to follow Jesus carrying his cross must bear in mind that the name "Christian" means "bearer or imitator of Christ" and that if he wishes to bear that noble title worthily, he must above all do as Christ charges us in the Gospel; we must oppose or deny ourselves, take up the cross, and follow him.

In danger, in distress, in uncertainty, think of Mary, call upon Mary. She never leaves your lips, she never departs from your heart; and so that you may obtain the help of her prayers, never forget the example of her life. If you follow her, you cannot falter; if you pray to her, you cannot despair; if you think of her, you cannot err. If she sustains you, you will not stumble; if she protects you, you have nothing to fear; if she guides you, you will never flag; if she is favourable to you, you will attain your goal... (Hom. II super Missus est, 17: PL 183, 70-71).

— St. Bernard of Clairvaux from his homily on the Incarnation of Christ.

WHAT IS THE FIRST SATURDAY DEVOTION? The Catholic devotion of First Saturdays was given to the Church by Our Lady of Fatima and the Child Jesus through the children of Fatima. In 1925, Mary and the Child Jesus appeared to Lucia, the sole surviving Fatima visionary, at a convent in Spain and promised her that she would "...assist at the hour of death, with the graces necessary for salvation, all those who on the first Saturdays of five consecutive months confess, receive Holy Communion, pray a Rosary, and keep me company for a quarter of an hour, meditating on the fifteen mysteries with the intention of offering me reparation.” HOW TO DO THE FIVE FIRST SATURDAYS: There are 4 requirements to faithfully fulfill the five first Saturdays: Go to Confession. Receive Holy Communion. Say five decades of the Holy Rosary. Meditate for fifteen minutes on the mysteries of the Holy Rosary (separate from saying the Rosary).
